

BROKE UP IN UPROAR

The French Assembly Dismisses Socialist Until the President Suspends the Sitting.
PARIS, Jan. 27.—There was a turbulent scene in the chamber of deputies today, and the sitting was finally suspended peremptorily by the president.

M. Clovis Hugues, one of the deputies from the Seine, interposed the government on the recent arrest of anarchists. During the course of his interpolation M. Clovis Hugues caused considerable interruption upon the part of the supporters of the government by reproaching the latter with persecuting the anarchists as a pretext for suppressing the socialists.

The speaker also intimated that the government was acting with a purpose, in illegally seizing correspondence.

M. Raynal, minister of the interior, replied that the government only applied the laws which had been passed by the chamber of deputies and justified the seizure of correspondence by quoting extracts from the writings of Beccus, the fugitive friend of Vallant.

Continuing M. Raynal said that the government had issued orders to the effect that the police were to search the domiciles of well-known anarchists or people known beyond a doubt to be in sympathy with the anarchists. But M. Raynal also said, it was difficult to distinguish between an anarchist and socialist.

In conclusion the minister of the interior remarked: "Liberty is in no way menaced by the action of the government, but liberty must not be confounded with honesty." Loud applause from the supporters of the government.

Other speakers continued the debate and all the speeches were interrupted to the degree that the session finally became so turbulent that the president of the chamber was compelled to order it to be suspended temporarily.

This caused a socialist deputy to shout, "Give a command."

The girl and her father are in the city, but claim not to have seen the negro, and their statement is deemed true.

HOUSE DOINGS.

Time largely Consumed in Debating the Tariff.

Mr. Cockran Bitterly Opposed to Income Tax.

THE ELECTIONS BILL

Occupies the Attention of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The only amendment to the tariff bill adopted by the house yesterday was one increasing the duty on cut stones, instead of 10 per cent ad valorem and taking rough uncut stones from the free list and placing them on the dutiable list at 10 per cent ad valorem. The ways and means committee, which desired to reduce the duty on cut stones from 15 to 10 per cent, was overruled in this matter. An attempt to place the slate on the free list was unsuccessful. There was yesterday, as on the two preceding days, considerable open-spoken opposition to the bill on the Democratic side.

To-day the special order extending debate three days will be brought in and passed, but the consideration of the internal revenue features of the bill, including the income tax, will not begin until Monday. During the debate on the tariff bill four of Iowa asked Corbett of New York to be present.

"With the income tax [pointed]

"The income tax is not in the bill," replied Mr. Cockran, "and it won't be if you on that side don't help to put it in." [Democrats oppose from opponents of income tax.] "Upon that proposition," he added, "the majority is about to surrender to the minority who are helping to frame this bill in order to eventually defeat you." [Applause.]

TAKE ON THE ELECTION BILL.

The Day in the Senate Devoted to Discussing the Matter.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The session of the senate was devoted to a discussion of Senator Call's public land resolution and a general colloquy over the Federal election bill. A strong appeal was made by Senator Call in favor of the homesteaders of Florida, who, he alleged, were being deprived of their rights by long granted railroads, without authority of law, and he finally succeeded in having his resolution referred to a joint committee for a careful inquiry into the various rights of the claimants.

Senator Chandler made an effort to have the bill rejected, but the general election bill was postponed until next December, but the motion was, of course, promptly defeated by the Democrats on the roll-call.

Secretary Wright from the committee on Indians reported the following resolution which was adopted:

"Resolved, That the several Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, widow of George Curtis of the several lands of George Curtis, be appointed a committee to inquire into and report to the senate the operations of the senate for the said Curtis."

At 2 o'clock the Hawaiian resolution, by request of Senator Turpiss, Democrat of Indiana, went over without prejudice.

The election bill came up in the regular order of unfinished business. The pending and outstanding was presented by Senator Chandler allowing every candidate to congress the right to name a personal watcher in each election precinct to inspect the representation of votes, and to be present at the counting of ballots. Senator Chandler took occasion to renew his objection to the bill to go over until next December and to the election law one more time.

"Of course," said Senator Wright, "the members of Congress are not to be expected to make him a prisoner the remainder of his life. His claims to be the son of a prominent Hawaiian lawyer.

ROBBERS SENTENCED.

The Illinois Train Bandits Found Guilty and Sent to State Prison.

LINCOLN, Ill., Jan. 27.—The case of the P. D. & E. train bandits was given to the jury today. Within one hour the jury decided all three guilty. Vanmetre was sentenced to ten years in the state prison, Woodward and Hoyle, having proven their age to be 19 and 15 respectively, were sentenced to the reform school.

Vanmetre is desperate and swears he will bait out his brains. There are other instruments hanging over him, which will make him a prisoner the remainder of his life. His claims to be the son of a prominent Hawaiian lawyer.

Senator Chandler said that to convince the senator he was in earnest he would move its postponement until next December.

Senator Hale, Democrat of Tennessee, said this bill in one shape or another had been before the senate for a long time, and he thought the suggestion of Senator Chandler was unreasonable.

Senator Chandler refuted by reading from a Democratic paper published at Memphis, Tenn.—Senator Hale's own state—alleging great fraud in that city in January, 1860. After further reading from the Democratic paper of Memphis, Senator Chandler said he believed if elections were as fair in Tennessee as Massachusetts, Tennessee would have two Republican senators.

Senator Harris of Tennessee said he would reply to Senator Hale's refutation, and Senator Hale replied briefly, referring to election in that state.

At this juncture Senator Hale, Republican of Oregon, intervened, in order that it might be printed an amendment to the Hawley resolution, declaring that "with a view to restoring the amicable relations between the United States and Hawaii the present minister to Hawaii should be recalled immediately."

The roll was then called on Senator Chandler's motion to postpone the election bill until next December and it was defeated—97 to 2.

The question went over again on Senator Chandler's amendment providing for one "watcher" at the polls. After a brief discussion by Senator Chandler, the senate went into executive session and at 4:40 adjourned until Monday next.

CORBETT COULDNT SPEAK.

But He Good Naturally Offered to Lie Anybody in the Crowd.

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 27.—Fugill Corbett and his party passed through this city this afternoon in a Pennsylvania train. Over a thousand men and boys assembled at the station and loudly cheered the champion when he appeared on the rear platform of his car.

In response to demands for a speech, Corbett said he was too hoarse to talk, but good naturedly offered to lie any man in the crowd.

To the correspondent of the Associated Press he said he would soon meet Jackson and then retire from the ring, Jack Dempsey and another member of his party were left in Washington. They will follow on the next train.

As the Corbett special pulled out of the station, it was seen that the tire rod of the private car was dislodged. The train was stopped and the necessary repairs made and a possible accident averted.

IN CHARGE OF THE WORK.

A New Committee Appointed by the Associated Charities.

The Associated Charities meeting at Library hall last evening appointed a committee whose duty it should be to redistribute the city for more systematic charitable work. This committee will report on Monday evening, and appoint certain persons to have general supervision of the respective districts.

The committee appointed consists of Edward Wilder, Dr. Minney, Mrs. Jonathan Thomas, Poor Commissioner Hale and Police Matron Mrs. Thorpe.

The members of this committee have been instructed to find out who will be suitable persons to properly carry on the work in their respective districts, and the society hopes in this way to be able to do more thorough work of relief.

OUTLOOK IS BETTER.

Bradstreet's Report Says Business Will Improve.

Only Seventeen Concerns Close During the Week.

SIXTY-TWO RESUME.

Annual Analysis of More Than 17,000 Failures.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Bradstreet's says: "The improvements in business and industrial lines reported heretofore, continues to gain moderately and shows gains from week to week, although more conspicuously in manufacturing than in commercial lines. This is indicated by the report of sixty-two resumptions of more important manufacturing establishments this week compared with seventeen shut down, and by the total of $840,227,000, the bank clearings of the week at fifty-four cities, which is nine per cent smaller than in the preceding week, and three per cent smaller than in the like week last year. The sudden and severe change in the weather has checked shipments of merchandise to many Western and Northwestern points, although orders for seasonable goods have, in many instances, been increased with the cold and the storm. Reductions in wages continue, and about a quarter of them are of twenty per cent, the rest ranging from seven to seventeen per cent. In no direction are quotations of manufactured products higher, but while some have greatly declined, the general tone is somewhat stronger."

Stocks of general merchandise at interior points, almost without exception, remain high, and although purchases from jobbers are generally less, to the accompaniment of those in a large volume.

Not the least significant is the increasing demand for loans at Chicago banks. More competition increases in sales by the jobbers are of dry goods, clothing, shoes and hats, while improvement in the industrial situation is shown from Newark and Pittsburgh. There is a much better demand for iron, although at cut prices, and quotations in some lines of iron and steel are below figures at which it was supposed possible to produce. Sales of raw wool are larger, notably at Boston, although quotations are shaded.

Stocks of available wheat decreased in the United States, both coasts, last week, 767,000 bushels, in Europe and abroad for Europe, 153,000 bushels, and increased in Australia, 1,000,000 bushels. Receipts of cotton for the five months of the current cotton year are about
